SPECULATION IN POONA CIRCLES

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT)

POONA, February 26.

RETURNING FROM DELHI AFTER A HECTIC WEEK OF CONFERENCES, CONSULTATIONS AND DEPUTATIONS, MR. RAJAGOPALACHARI MET JOURNALISTS TO-DAY WITH A DISPIRITED LOOK AND MORE THAN HINTED THAT HE WAS A DISAPPOINTED MAN. THE FIRST REACTION OF THE PRESS TO HIS ARRIVAL HERE WITH MESSRS. BHULABHAI DESAI AND KANHAIYALAL MUNSHI WAS THAT HE WAS ON A DIPLOMATIC MISSION AND THAT HE MIGHT YET MAKE ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO SOLVE THE POLITICAL IMPASSE.

REPLYING TO JOURNALISTS' QUERIES, RAJAJI SAID THAT HE WOULD RATHER KEEP SILENT UNTIL INTERVIEW WITH GANDHIJI THIS AFTERNOON.

Nevertheless, Poona political circles expect important developments from Rajaji's arrival. Meanwhile, Bapuji is bearing the penance heroically. Foreign Press contingent in Poona increasing in strength every day is now speculating what would be the next move of Bapuji on the termination of the fast.

American correspondents, photographers and newsreelmen are continuously pouring in Poona. British correspondents are expected to-day. They will be the first Britishers on the scene.

Rajaji Sees Mahatma

Mr. C. Rajagopalachari had a brief interview with Mahatma Gandhi this evening.

Mr. Rajagopalachari told pressmen after seeing Mahatma Gandhi that he found him quite cheerful and confident of pulling through the fast. He said that he was very pleased to see Mahatma Gandhi and so was Mahatma Gandhi to see him.

Mr. C. Rajagopalachari told pressmen that he had telegraphed to the Government for permission to see Mahatma Gandhi again as often as he desired till the breaking of the fast.

He could not, of course, discuss politics with him, in view of his present state of health, although he had much to talk about.

Mr. Bhulabhai J. Desai, Mr Walchand Hirachand, Mrs Ramnarain Ruia and some relatives also saw Mahatma Gandhi this evening.

Mr. M. S. Aney has arrived in Poona to-day to see Mahatma Gandhi.—A. P.

Visitors To Mahatma

"Russia is far too occupied to take interest in us. China has already shown her great interest in a satisfactory solution of the Indian impasse, and at the present moment, she is helpless herself", said Mr. C. Rajagopalachari, in an interview to the "United Press" when asked what he thought about the attitude of Russia and China towards the present Indian situation.

Mr. Rajagopalachari interviewed Gandhiji this afternoon and was with him for a considerable period. He is expected to meet Gandhiji again.

Earlier Mr. Bhulabhai Desai and Mr. K. M. Munshi paid a visit to Gandhiji. Among other interviewers to-day were Mrs. Janakidevi Bajaj, Mrs. Urmila Devi, sister of the late Mr. C. R Das, and Swami Anand.

Mr. Rathindranath Tagore, son of the late Dr. Rabindranath Tagore, has already arrived here and is on the waiting list of visitors. The "United Press" understands that Mrs. Krishna Hutheesingh is arriving here in the course of the day to see Gandhiji.

According to one report current here, Mr. J. R. D. Tata is also expected here shortly. Mr. Anand Hinguranj of Karachi, the well-known publisher of Gandhiji's writings, has also arrived here and is awaiting Government permission to see Gandhiji.

It appears that Gandhiji spent a fairly good night yesterday. As he does not feel necessary, the quantity of lime juice is understood to be considerably reduced. It is understood that Mr. Kanu Gandhi, Gandhiji's grand-nephew, who is staying at the palace, is taking down notes of the talks between Gandhiji and visitors.

The "United Press" learns that Mr. Munshi intends interviewing Gandhiji again, and for this purpose, he got in touch with the Inspector-General of Prisons this morning.—United Press.

Tan Yun Shan To See Mahatma

CALCUTTA, Feb. 26.

Prof. Tan Yun Shan, Director of the Cheena Bhavana, Santiniketan, left Santiniketan yesterday for Poona to seek an interview with Gandhiji. He observed fast on Wednesday.—United Press.

Aney To Stay Till End Of Fast

The "United Press" learns that Mr Aney who arrived here this evening is meeting Gandhiji tomorrow afternoon. He is likely to stay here till the end of the fast, though the final decision on this matter would be made after his meeting with Gandhiji.

Mr. Aney, it may be recalled, who was then the acting President of the Congress, had been with Gandhiji during the latter's three weeks' fast at Poona in 1932.

The "United Press" gathers that Mr. Munshi who saw Gandhiji this morning is meeting him tomorrow morning for the second time.

Mr. Walchand Hirachand and Mrs. Ruia paid a visit to Gandhiji this evening. Mr. Shantikumar Morarjee arrived here this evening.

Arrests In Poona

POONA, Feb. 26.

The "United Press" learns that the second meeting between Mr. C. Rajagopalachari and Mr. Horace Alexander of the Friends Ambulance Unit was held tonight at the former's Poona residence. Mr. Rajagopalachari was also closetted with Mr. Horace Alexander for more than three hours last night.

As nausea has subsided, Gandhiji has been taking more water and is taking now about 60 ounces of water with a very little mixture of lime juice.

About a dozen persons excluding daily visitors interviewed Mahatma Gandhi to-day. The list includes Mr. Shantikumar Morarji and his sister.

It is understood Mr Rathindra Nath Tagore, son of Dr. Rabindra Nath Tagore, who arrived here with family has received permission from the Government and is meeting Gandhiji to-morrow. Shrimati Sarala Devi Chowdhurani is also arriving here to-morrow to see Gandhiji.

Sixteen persons from Ahmedabad were arrested to-day at the Railway station and detained under the Defence of India Rules. Fifteen others from Satara, Thana and Indore were also taken to custody for making demonstrations and shouting slogans.—United Press.

Resigned Over Issue Affecting India's Greatest Man

Sarkar Urges New Orientation In Congress Policy

NEW DELHI, Feb. 26.

Mr. N. R. Sarkar, who resigned from the Viceroy's Executive Council, on the eve of his departure for Calcutta, has issued the following statement to the Press:

"When I accepted office about a year and a half ago I did so in spite of the fact that it was not in line with the views of the predominant political organisation with which I myself was intimately associated for the best part of my public life.

I strongly felt that a policy of keeping away from responsibility and refusal to take advantage of whatever chances came in our way would not be in the interests of the country under the present circumstances.

I had the honour to be in charge of three departments of the Government of India (Education, Health and Lands; Commerce and Food) and my experience has convinced me that, in spite of obvious limitations, there is enough scope for doing useful service to the country and promoting the national interests.

This is particularly so in times of war which brings in its train new phases of activities affecting vital national interests and welfare of the masses.

Similarly, during the difficult period of transition from war to peace many problems of far-reaching significance are bound to arise, and without representative Indians on the Government at such a time, there is a real danger that the country's interests would largely go by default.

It in spite of all these, I decided to lay down my office, it was on an overriding consideration in connection with the latest policy of the Government of India regarding the greatest man of India who embodies our national aspiration for freedom and stands foremost in the sphere of our progressive social activities, and whose life is ever so vital for bringing about a real and lasting reconciliation between the various communities in India and between India and Great Britain.

I am, however, confident that where we have failed, Almighty God will step in to help us and to save him for us.

It is my prayer at this hour that he may yet live for many years to serve the country's cause.

It is also my earnest hope to-day that the political technique for winning national freedom may be re-adjusted in full appreciation of the realities of the present situation.

At the same time I would appeal to the British Government also to reorient their present policy and take a realistic and helpful attitude towards solving the present deadlock.—A.P.

Leaguers' Appeal to Jinnah

BERHAMPORE (Bengal), Feb. 25.

Appeals have been made to Mr. M. A. Jinnah by Maulvi Abdul Gani, Vice-Chairman of Berhampore Municipality and some other members of the District Muslim League urging him to use his influence for the immediate release of Mahatma Gandhi.—A.P.

"The moral influence which he has exercised upon thinking people through the civilized world may be far more durable than would appear likely in our present age, with its exaggeration of brute force. For the work of statesmen is permanent only in so far as they arouse and consolidate the moral forces of their peoples through their personal example and educating influence.

We are fortunate and should be grateful that fate has bestowed upon us so luminous a contemporary—a beacon to the generations to come."

—ALBERT EINSTEIN, D.Sc.

Soldiers' Deal To Aney

Incident At Nagpur Railway Station

NAGPUR, Feb. 26.

Sensation was caused in Nagpur by the report that last evening when Mr. M. S. Aney, former Member of the Viceroy's Council, was leaving for Poona, four soldiers took possession of the seat in the second class compartment which had already been reserved for him, and threw his luggage out of the compartment. Mr. Aney's friends protested and also argued with the soldiers that the seat had been reserved for him.

The efforts of the police and railway authorities to persuade the soldiers to leave the compartment were of no avail and ultimately Mr. Aney had to be accommodated in another compartment.

It may be recalled that a similar incident occurred some time back when Mr. C. M. Trivedi, War Secretary and the then Chief Secretary to the Government of Central Provinces and Berar, wanted to send a relative of his from Nagpur in the Bombay-Howrah Mail.—United Press.

SOVIET COMMUNIQUE.

The Moddav Communique supplement says: South-west of Voroshilovgrad one unit realt the Germans a sudden blow and captured a strongly fortified inhabited locality, 200 Germans were wiped out.

SUCCESS IN KUBAN AREA.

FOOD CONFERENCE CONCLUDES

After lasting for three days, the All-India Food Conference, concluded its session in New Delhi on February 26.

The recommendations of the two sub-committees were accepted without dissent at the plenary session of the Conference on the third day.

Thus the conference has closed with a measure of agreement that at one time was not thought possible and the way is now clear for a wide range of action to put plans into force that will deal effectively with India's food problems.—A. P.

LONDON TRIBUTES TO MAHATMA

(From Our Own Correspondent).

LONDON, February 25.

A public meeting was held in London under the auspices of the Parliamentary Committee of the India League to consider the Indian situation sequel to Mahatma Gandhi's fast.

Sir William Rothenstein, Dame Sybil Thorndike, the Bishop of Birmingham, Mrs. Pethick Lawrence, and Sir Peter Chalmers Mitchell could not attend the meeting, although they were in complete agreement with its object.

In the course of a letter Sir W. Rothenstein wrote: "I have been deeply concerned over the situation following Mahatma Gandhi's fast. I have written to several friends on whose interest I counted.

While understanding the Viceroy's attitude dictated by the natural sense of justice and propriety it appears to me that this is scarcely the time when theoretical rightness and political tradition should carry so much weight.

Dame Sybil Thorndike wrote:

"It seems so tragic that in an age when saints are much needed many people should fail to recognise the unique greatness and saintliness of Gandhiji".

Mitchell wrote:

"I support every possible step that can be taken to secure the release of Gandhiji".

ADVANCE TOWARDS SBEITALA

By last evening, they had moved ten to fifteen miles towards Sbeitala. They are now only about nine miles from the latter town.

GEN. EISENHOWER

Morocco Radio said to-day that General Eisenhower only left the front after it was evident that the Axis forces were being successfully thrown back through the Kasserine Pass. He had a number of consultations only a few miles behind the fighting zone with General Alexander.—Reuter.

GOVERNMENT'S OPPORTUNITY

The seventeenth day of Gandhiji's fast has passed without any appreciable change in his condition. This, coupled with the report that he continues to receive visitors and even to speak to them, encourages the hope that he will pull through the ordeal. But we feel it necessary to point out that during the next four days, which must necessarily be most trying, the number of visitors must be far more rigorously curtailed than it has been so far. When he is told that such and such important persons or near relatives wish to see him he will naturally enough think it his duty to see them, but the visitors themselves should be more kind and considerate and refuse to put any avoidable strain on him for the next few days. According to our correspondent, there were on Wednesday as many as twenty visitors; and Gandhiji naturally had a cheery word for every one of them. Hereafter at least visitors should consider if their pleasure may not inflict pain on him. Two days ago we thought it superfluous to say all this. But the reports about visits during the last two or three days make us feel that it is not superfluous.

Worthless Pamphlet

Mr. Rajagopalachari, who has had one interview with Gandhiji and who has wired to Government for permission to see him again as often as he desired till the breaking of the fast, rightly refused to discuss politics with him, "although he had much to talk about." Nor should Gandhiji be worried about the worthless pamphlet published by the Government of India as a desperate attempt to justify their policy of relentless repression and to throw the responsibility for its terrible consequences on the Congress "under the leadership of Mr. Gandhi." We shall not be surprised if even after the fast Government refuse to put Gandhiji among the Working Committee members so as to enable them all to give a reply to their charges. That, incidentally, should impress upon Gandhiji the limitations of methods like fasting when he has to deal with men like Mr. Churchill and Mr. Amery and Lord Linlithgow. But Gandhiji's letters to Lord Linlithgow are by themselves a vindication of his attitude and, for the rest, the Indian public will deal with the pamphlet all right, though it seems to be meant mainly for American consumption.

Wanted Helpful Attitude

Till the fast is ended it is best for the public not to divert its attention unduly to the question of responsibility for the disturbances. For the present the first and foremost concern for the public is to ensure Gandhiji's safety and health. If this is made possible through his release even at this late hour, India's traditional gratitude will be a helpful factor in the solution of the wider issues involved in the fast. But if the fast has to be ended in jail, the political situation will depend largely on Government's attitude towards Congress leaders, and its nature need not be discussed now. Mr. N. R. Sarkar, who resigned from the Viceroy's Executive Council, says: "It is also my earnest hope to-day that the political technique for winning national freedom may be re-adjusted in full appreciation of the realities of the present situation. At the same time I would appeal to the British Government also to reorient their present policy and take a realistic and helpful attitude towards solving the present deadlock." So long as the Congress leaders are in jail, political initiative rests with Government. At a time when all India has concentrated her attention on the deadlock and is realising its implications more vividly than perhaps ever before, Government have a unique opportunity for an act of statesmanship by releasing Gandhiji and the Congress leaders at once and making that a fresh starting point for negotiations. Such an opportunity may not come again soon, if it comes at all.

Rommel Retreats

The Kasserine Pass, as reported by an eye-witness, has now been occupied by the Allies. The Germans are also reported to be abandoning not only the town of Kasserine but also Gafsa further to the South. A significant fact about the recent recovery by the Allies is that the Germans themselves admit a general withdrawal in central Tunisia adding also that the present phase has now changed into positional fighting. Rommel would not have resorted to a general withdrawal and gone on the defensive—for that is what the admission means—had he not suffered losses disproportionate to his available resources.

If this is the position and since it is easier for the Allies to increase their own strength they ought to achieve some considerable successes in Central Tunisia. The fight may be very hard but it is not impossible to cut the Axis forces into two or in the alternative to force Rommel to withdraw his southern forces northwards thus abandoning the Mareth Line and enabling the Eighth Army, sooner than later, to join up with the Allied forces in Tunisia.

The Donetz Battle

German resistance in the Donetz basin is reported to have stiffened considerably and Berlin has even claimed the recapture of two important towns. This does not mean that the tide of the present Soviet offensive is in any danger of turning against Russia. Indeed, considering that the Russians possess strength and resources enough to extend their offensive operations now to the northern half of the long front, there is little likelihood of their general drive being checked yet to any appreciable extent. But the Donetz fighting does mean that Germans are far, indeed, from beaten yet. Once the weather and the terrain begin interfering with manoeuvrability, the Germans will get a respite for reorganising and strengthening their forces. And it is quite probable that they would be in a position to strike back in June. Hence the early need for a Second Front.

WHY SRIVASTAVA DID NOT RESIGN

LUCKNOW, Feb. 26.

Raja Maheshwar Dayal Seth, till recently General Secretary of the All-India Hindu Mahasabha has issued the following:—

"Millions of our countrymen keenly wish that the other Indian members of the Viceroy's Executive Council had joined their three patriotic colleagues in resigning from that body. The Hindu Mahasabhaites in particular desire that the Hon'ble Sir J. P. Srivastava, who, it is understood, is willing to abide by the verdict of the Mahasabha should not continue to be a party to the policy of the Government not to release Mahatma Gandhi even in the alarming condition of his health. It has surprised as well as pained many that both Mr. Savarkar and Dr. Moonje, President and General Secretary respectively of the Mahasabha, should have advised Sir J. P. Srivastava not to resign. Mahatmaji's life is over and above all politics and controversies and is precious not only to the country but to the world at large. Our feeling is that the Hindu Sabha member of the Viceroy's Executive Council should resign his office as the self-respect and interest of the entire organisation demand.

It is rather said that the request of no less a person that the Working President, Dr. Shyama Prasad Mookerjee, that a meeting of the Working Committee of the All-India Hindu Mahasabha should be held to consider the advisability of calling upon Sir Jwala Prasad Srivastava to resign was refused by the President. The public is entitled to know from the President the reasons which led him to advise Sir Jwala Prasad Srivastava not to resign. The matter will have to be agitated at a meeting of the All-India Committee of the Hindu Mahasabha on requisition."—A. P.

NEW DELHI, Feb. 26.

Mr. N. R. Sarker left for Calcutta this evening.—A.P.

Frankly Speaking

A Thought For The Day

"Gandhiji is a great social scientist and social inventor. His achievements remind me of the old Sanskrit saying: "Magic powers do not come to a man because he does things that are hard, but because he does things with a pure heart." That is, miracles can be accomplished by lofty, single purpose and utter devotion. Thank God for Gandhiji!"

—RICHARD B. GREGG.

Allied Shipping

The U.S.A. Maritime Commission reports that by February 24th, United States shipyards had launched more than 180 ships in 1943. In other words the United States alone is now building more than three ships a day. If there is added to this gratifying record the not inconsiderable production in Britain and the Dominions there can be no doubt that the shipping resources have grown and are growing far faster than enemy submarines can possibly reduce them. In the circumstances it is difficult to appreciate the plea urged both in America and Britain and particularly by Mr. Churchill and Sir Stafford Cripps that the Russians do not quite understand the naval and maritime phase of the war.

Silly Insinuation

Those who attribute Sir H. P. Mody's resignation to pressure from the Congress Party Members in the Central Legislature neither care for truth nor do they know Sir Hormusji at all. Apart from the trenchant reply given by him to the insinuation, Congress Legislators, such of them as are free, are hardly likely to run the risk of being told by him to mind their business, if they at all expected anything from one who was party to jailing Gandhiji and hundreds of Congress leaders without a trial. Sir Hormusji has never been kind to the Congress and is too proud to be persuaded by any party to do anything he does not like. He has a passion for an independent line of action and has perhaps revolted against undue pressure in the Executive Council in the name of official discipline. Whatever may be his precise motive in resigning—it may not be the same as that which weighed with Mr. Aney and Mr. Sarkar—it is, we have no doubt, honourable. Those who doubt it are hard put to it to disguise their chagrin to find a knight, believed to be dependable, resisting official pressure.

Unpleasant But Not Uncommon

According to a United Press message, Mr. Aney had an unpleasant but by no means uncommon experience with some soldiers at the Nagpur railway station. When on Thursday evening he was leaving for Poona, four soldiers, so goes the report, "took possession of the seat in the second class compartment which had already been reserved for him, and threw his luggage out of the compartment." Mr. Aney's friends protested and also argued with the soldiers that the seat had been reserved for him but the efforts of the police and railway authorities to persuade the soldiers to leave the compartment were of no avail and ultimately Mr. Aney had to be accommodated in another compartment. It must be presumed that the police and the railway authorities took down the names of the soldiers, even though they were too impotent to do what they would have done with Indian offenders. The matter must not be allowed to stop there.

Why Not Prosecute Them?

To The Editor of "The Chronicle".

Sir,—After carefully going through the Gandhi-Linlithgow correspondence, any ordinary impartial citizen will, I believe, find one thing difficult to understand—why does not the Government try the Congress leaders in a Court of Law, especially when it has, as it claims, ample incriminating evidence against them?

Admittedly, there is some danger to social peace involved in such a political trial specially in war time.

The war danger is still there; but it has perceptibly subsided so far as India is concerned since August last when the Congress leaders were arrested. And after all, was not Sir Roger Casement tried during the last war before the Lord Chief Justice of England in the midst of the Zepplin raids over London and with the Ulster and Sinn Fein movements at their height? Sir Roger Casement was arrested on 24th April, 1916, charged among other things of bringing arms into Ireland from Germany and sentenced on 29th June of the same year.

But six months have already elapsed since the arrest of the Congress leaders. Surely, this is long enough time for the Government to prepare its case against the Congress Working Committee.

If there is a trial the world public will be in a position to judge for itself if they are guilty or not guilty of the offences alleged against them. If the reign of law is to prevail in the land, this is the least that must be done.—Yours, etc.,

M. G. DESAI.

Cruelty To Horses

To The Editor of "The Chronicle".

Sir,—It is a common sight these days—especially when there are a lot of troops in town—to see as many as nine and ten people in one gharry. These gharries, loaded in this manner, ply on all the main roads of Bombay but the policemen on duty take no notice of them whatsoever and when questioned express complete ignorance as to what they are expected to do in such cases.

Surely it is time that the police put a stop to this particular form of cruelty to the unfortunate gharry horses.

I would also add a word here to Officers in charge of troops visiting Bombay and ask them to point out to their men that Victorias are drawn not by machines but mere horses and there is therefore a limit to the weight these animals should be made to draw.—Yours, etc.,

(Mrs.) P. PANNELL.

Bombay.

Freedom Of The Press!

To The Editor of "The Chronicle"

Sir,—The Turkish Delegation told us the other day, that India was enjoying that Freedom of the Press, which was denied even in the neutral countries to-day! To them, we beg to dedicate the latest communique of the Bombay Government to the Editors, Publishers and Printers of Bombay papers, regarding Gandhiji's latest action. Let them read and reflect calmly and dispassionately, and judge matters aright.—Yours, etc.

R. B. BHARUCHA.

Atlantic Charter—And India

A Declaration Of The Rights Of Nations And Of Individuals

BY K. T. SHAH

I

A declaration of certain leading ideas to govern post-war reconstruction has been made by the heads of the American and the British Imperial Governments, which has since been given the somewhat grandoise name of the Atlantic Charter. This declaration takes its origin and inspiration, chiefly from the conditions of Europe prior to 1939; and is designed, primarily, to meet European problems of that day. At the time it was proclaimed, the United States were not themselves at war; but their sympathies were unmistakable; and hence the association of their Chief Executive in such a declaration addressed to the whole world.

Origin And Inspiration

Two main trends of thought seem to have influenced the authors of this Declaration of the Rights of Nations and of individuals. Clearly, they were frightened, not only of the actual victories of the Nazis in the field; they were even more alarmed at the possibilities of the Nazi idea backed by German science, German efficiency, and German equipment. The U. S. A. were not touched, directly, by the former; but they stood to suffer the most from the latter. And the leaders of British Imperialism had their own reasons to be seriously apprehensive of the challenge of the Nazis.

On the other hand, in the background hovered the uneasy ghost of the Communist bogey. The world has yet to learn, fully and authoritatively, the secret of the Hess Mission to Britain. But there is little doubt that it was the forlorn hope, a gambler's throw, of Hitler finding himself up against Russia. The possibilities of that immense land, throbbing with the living faith of a great Revolution, were as unfathomable as they were impossible to denounce, once Russia had been accepted as an ally. It is, however, no violence to the known sentiments of the leaders, at least of Britain, to assume that the spirit of Stalinism must be even less palatable to the plutocracy of Britain and America than that of Hitler proclaiming the inherent and indefeasible superiority of the Nordic Herrenvolk, whereof the Anglo-Saxon branches on either side of the Atlantic may well claim to be branches.

Appeal Primarily To European Countries

Between these two divergent streams of thought lies a thin strip, well suited to entrap the European peoples similarly apprehensive of the Nazi juggernaut. The main ground of the Nazis for challenging the European system established at Versailles,—the need for lebenstraum by the have-not peoples,—must be remedied; equal opportunities of trade and raw materials must be held out; and even hints at social security to the individual offered, to wean the lacking and the unwary from the path leading to the Nazi lair, and at the same time save them from wandering into the Communist jungle. Other peoples of the rest of the world did not appear to them, at the date of the Charter, to be anything particularly to be worried about.

Charter—On Whom Binding And How Far?

Before considering the several Articles of the Charter, let us first consider how far it is binding, and on whom? As stated already, it is an act of the executive chiefs of two of the Allied Governments. They, no doubt, are the chief partners among the Allies. Russia and China may be more important in territory and population. The former may have hit harder, and the latter may have stayed out longer than any other ally. But the Charter is innocent of any attempt at consulting them; and, much less, of embodying any soupçon of their views on post-war reconstruction.

Even as regards the signatories themselves, the American Senate has not ratified, in any way, this declaration to which the American President was a party; and the American Senate has a constitutional right to be associated with the President in such matters. Even the British Parliament has in no way signified its formal endorsement of its Prime Minister's declaration. All other Allies are, of course, out of the pronouncement,—including the autonomous British Dominions, who, we may presume, will not be entirely mute at the Peace Conference. The other Allies were neither present when the Charter was drafted, nor have they subsequently signified their adherence to its terms.

Will Russia abide by the terms, even if they might leave the possibility open for a resurrection of Germany, in some form not essentially different from to-day's? Or, will France and Poland consent? And what about neutrals like Turkey, Spain, or Sweden?

When we analyse the terms of the Articles, it will be evident that, taken collectively, the charter is an attempt to salvage and safeguard European civilisation, founded on individualism and motived by commercialism, as developed and understood in Britain, and as inherited or adopted in the United States of America. The countries even of Latin America may have some caveats to enter when its terms are sought to be given effect to. Those of Asia may even have to record some demurrer, assuming they are admitted on equal terms to the Peace Conference.

If we try to make explicit all that is implied or understood by the several clauses of this Charter, and avoid wishful thinking, or take meanings for granted, many unexpected ambiguities and complexities would be discovered. Taken as a whole, the Atlantic Charter seems intended to be a collective guarantee, by the British and American Chiefs, to all those who are fighting on their side, or who accept the ideals they profess, even though temporarily under the hold of the reactionary conqueror. But because it has been couched in language intelligible to the masses, it is capable of varied interpretation when several conflicting interests tackle the task of giving effect to it. There is, on the face of it, ample room for doubts, misgivings, or apprehensions in the absence of an authoritative gloss, which will make a shipwreck of the declaration unless adequate and authoritative elucidation is provided while there is yet time.

"Destiny Of China" To Be Best Seller

CALCUTTA, Feb. 26.

Probably the best seller to ever appear in China will be the "Destiny of China", written by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek to be published on March 12 by the Chung Chang Book Company in Chungking.

Subscribers have been jaming the office of the company and its branch offices in about 20 cities throughout Free China. It is expected that 500,000 copies will be sold when the first edition comes out. Translation of the book into foreign languages has been proceeding.

The theme of the book is to urge the Chinese youths to dedicate themselves to the accomplishment of great deeds, not personal advancement.—United Press.

Opening Night For Bombay's Red Cross Week

(Through Red Cross Week Committee).

Determined to give the Red Cross Week a worthy start the Ladies Committee of the War Gifts Fund, led by the indefatigable Mrs. Queenie Captain, have arranged a cocktail dance, cabaret and casino which looks like putting all their previous efforts on behalf of good causes in the shade. It will be held at Green's by courtesy of the Indian Hotels Co., Ltd. from 7 to 11 p.m. on March 3rd, and His Excellency the Governor and Lady Lumley have promised to attend.

The evening cabaret programme will feature some of the finest exhibition dancing ever seen in Bombay (and there's a probable "exciting surprise" in this connection), and the Casino is going to be a most convincingly professional affair—it will be under very expert management. Roulette, chemin-de-fer, baccarat, poker and bridge are all going to be played. Then there will be all sorts of games of skill and games of chance, Australian Race Games and Lucky Prize Envelopes. Tickets are Rs. 10 each, and a table (for four) can be reserved for another rupee. Refreshments are extra, of course! Tickets can be obtained from the Taj (Telephone 35001) and the Ladies Committee Office, 3rd floor of the Central Bank Building (Tel. 27061).

LONDON.—Allied help for China will be the subject of a debate in the House of Lords during the next series of sittings. The debate will be initiated by the Labour Peer, Lord Strabolgi.—Reuter.

Prayers And Hartal In South Africa

JOHANNESBURG, Feb. 25.

February 25 was observed by Indians as a day of prayer and fasting in most large centres in South Africa for Mahatma Gandhi. Indian business premises were closed and religious ceremonies held.—Reuter.

TÊTE-À-TÊTE

WITHOUT COMMENT—

"If, in spite of all these, I decided to lay down my office, it was on an overriding consideration in connection with the latest policy of the Government of India regarding the greatest man of India who embodies our national aspiration for freedom and stands foremost in the sphere of our progressive social activities....."

—Mr. N. R. Sarkar.

* * *

At question time in the House of Commons a Conservative gentleman suggested that "the Government of India was earning universal respect by recognition of its primary duty—maintenance of conditions under which the masses of Indians could lead orderly normal lives."

Even Mr. L. S. Amery felt constrained not to reply.

* * *

Apropos of the charges against Mahatma Gandhi, Mr. Amery has promised the British Parliament and Public "fuller matter" which is 'en route' from India.

And we are certain a gratified and grateful British Government would eventually elevate Sir Richard Tottenham to the Peerage—the pension to be supplied, of course, by India.

* * *

Congratulating General MacArthur, President Roosevelt says that "the Papuan coast campaign must have a demoralising effect on Japanese confidence in the fighting efficiency of their ground troops."

We beg to differ. This good result has been achieved by Field Marshal Wavell the victor of the Arakan (North-Western) Coast.

* * *

"It would be enlightening to read the articles on Indian affairs by these representatives of Kemalist Turkey"—Anglo-India.

It would be even more enlightening to read the history of Kemalist Turkey. But rather awkward, too, wouldn't it be?

* * *

It is reported that of the 1,000 Italians surrounded near the Kasserine Pass many have already surrendered.

Which is no news except in so far as implying that the rest have not yet surrendered.

FAST DRAWING TO A CLOSE

(From Our Special Correspondent)

POONA, Feb. 26.

With doctors, who have been attending on Gandhiji expressing through their bulletins a more optimistic view about the uncovered phase of the fast. Poona is looking forward eagerly to the stroke of 8 in the morning of Wednesday next, when the Mahatma is expected to take the first sip of undiluted orange juice and thus break his fast.

According to medical opinion the week following the termination of the fast will be equally an anxious period when the reactions of the body to the first few feedings will have to be watched.

The foreign press contingent in Poona is enlarging as the fast is drawing to a close. They are hunting up the autobiography of the Mahatma to wireless on Wednesday next a "profile" in words of Gandhiji. They have not yet come to an agreement whether it is the seventeenth fast or the nineteenth. The first woman reporter to arrive in Poona, Miss Tammarr of the "New York Herald Tribune" tried to reconstruct, with the help of a doctor who had examined Gandhiji, a complete setting in which the Mahatma finds himself.

Oxford War Atlas

The Oxford University Press has just published the Oxford War Atlas 1939-42 (Indian edition) by Jasper H. Stembridge and R. V. Leyden. The Atlas is, as the authors say, a record in maps of the events of the first three years of the war upto the beginning of September, 1942 and a reference atlas for the main theatres of the war, including a number of general maps and diagrams dealing with the economic and strategical background of different countries or parts of the world.

In the Indian edition, special attention has been paid to the war in the Far East. Altogether the Atlas will prove to be very useful.

LIGHT ON FEVER DIET

The problem of food during and after fever has long troubled the medical profession. The patient's stomach is usually too weak to tolerate solid food, yet nourishment is essential to avoid collapse.

Research has shown that the exhaustion produced by fever is the result of fever poisons in the system. These poisons affect nerve and muscle tissues and cause wasting and intense weakness.

These wasted tissues must be rebuilt without delay and for this purpose. Horlicks is ideal, because it provides maximum nourishment in a form that can easily be assimilated. Horlicks rebuilds tissue and restores strength quickly, shortens convalescence. For these reasons, Horlicks is included by many leading hospitals in fever diets.

It stops a developing cold and catarrh of the respiratory passage, bronchitis; allays and soothes the irritable cough in pulmonary tuberculosis, pneumonia, pleurisy; the dry cough children suffer after measles; and the dry hacking night-cough typical in old age Riosol is a household remedy which every family should buy.

From 40 Lakhs To 75 Lakhs

Municipality's Terms To Turf Club For Lease Of Land

The Improvements Committee on Friday, considered the application of the Secretary, Royal Western India Turf Club, offering Rs. 40 lakhs for a plot of land at Mahaluxmi Race Course admeasuring 10.22,806 square yards on a lease of 999 years commencing from June 1944 and a nominal rent of Re. one. In 1937, the Royal Western India Turf Club had offered Rs. 30 lacs for the same plot, but the proposal was not accepted by the Municipal Corporation.

On Friday, the Improvements Committee considered the proposal again and in view of the high prices of the landed properties resolved to accept the proposal if the price is raised to Rs 75 lakhs from Rs. 40 lakhs. In case, the Royal Western India Turf Club wants to give back the plot to the Municipality, in future, the latter would resume occupation on payment of Rs. 40 lakhs only. Another condition imposed is that the R. W. I. T. Club shall permit the public facilities to go to the enclosure on non-race days for recreation purposes and shall put up two entrances, viz., one at Hornby Vellard and another at Haines Road.

The Municipal Commissioner would negotiate with the Secretary, R.W.I.T. Club on the basis of this resolution and report to the Improvements Committee, the decision of the Club after which the Improvements Committee will recommend to the Municipal Corporation about the sale of the aforesaid plot.

DESPITE LIVING WIFE

LEGAL LUMINARY TO MARRY AGAIN?

BOMBAY, Friday.

A sensational rumour, going round the society circles of our city that Mr. Ashok Mehta, the England-returned Barrister-son of a rich city-lawyer is running after a smart society girl-graduate, with a view to marry her!

The curious catch in this gossip is that Mr. Ashok has a pretty and lovable wife at home, whom he ignores and illtreats, simply because she is not an ultra-modern dame!....

This is one of the catchy and colourful situations from Producer Kardar's social hit "SHARDA", now drawing crowds in its 6th week at the local Minerva Talkies.

Structural engineers, architects and wood-workers swore by "REMCO" quality. Today this same timber is being used extensively for the construction of army trucks, munition boxes, tent poles, ships, etc. War or peace, "REMCO" quality never varies.

"Lalaji" Released At Swastik

"Lalaji" presents two new stars, who are getting their first break on the Indian screen.

Yashodhara Katju, a winsome young girl from an aristocratic Kashmiri family, who is an expert in the Kathakali, Manipuri and Tanjore styles of dancing, is creating quite a flutter among the audiences, while Krishnakant, a handsome young graduate from Lucknow, gives an exciting performance.

The story of "Lalaji" represents an impressive story of the Indian joint-family life.

Why 'Jawab' Is Such A Draw

Some pictures have achieved success because of gripping story, others because of snappy tunes and still others because of the air of sentimentalism that pervades all through the picture. It is very rarely that we come across pictures that have all these values. One comes across such films as rarities, "Jawab" is such a rarity. The picture has gripping story, lilting tunes and to add to that there is that divine sentiment called "love" that permeates through the whole length of the picture.

It is now in the 20th week at Imperial.

Sitara in "Kaljug" shortly coming to Lamington.

'Muhurt' Of 'Sawaal'

SUBSTITUTES FOR 'FILMISTAN'

BY T. V. P.

When I wrote casually last week suggesting that Mr. Shashadhar Mukherji would be glad to consider alternatives to 'Filmistan,' the name he has entatively decided upon for his new studio, I did not expect to be inundated with a dozen and odd letters.

It appears the letters were addressed to me because I did not give Mr. Mukherji's address. Indeed some of them were addressed to him, but to my care. I duly got in touch with Mr. Mukherji and handed the letters over to him. He had received some also and by now there are about a score of alternatives before him.

Director Kishore Sahu's "Raja"

Director Kishore Sahu's "Raja", under the banner of Purnima Productions, is making rapid headway. At the present speed, it is expected that the picture will be ready for release in the first week of March.

Kishore Sahu and Protima Dasgupta, the favourite romance-makers of "Kunwara Bap", play the central roles in the picture.

Pagnis as Vidur in "Mahatma Vidur" coming shortly to Majestic.

Chivalrous Hero of 'Kismet'

Shekhar, the hero of Bombay Talkies' picture "Kismet" is undeniably a chivalrous youth. It is true he does not live by fair means and has no good social position, but his innate goodness is not extinct inspite of the wayward life he leads and is easily roused.

Ashok Kumar plays this role with the ease and confidence of a seasoned artiste and Mumtaz Shanti also rises equal to her part. Crowded with attractions of beautiful songs and music, "Kismet" deservedly draws crowded houses in the 8th week of its run at the Roxy.

"Kaljug" Coming To Lamington On Friday

In the wake of its overwhelming success in the north Hind Pictures' social picture "Kaljug" will have its premiere in Bombay on Friday 5th March at Lamington Talkies.

Second Run Pictures

"MUSAFIR" starring Motilal, Khurshid and Vasanti will be shown at Broadway from to-day.

"PUKAR" is running in its fifth week at Edward.

"Sharda" In 6th Week At Minerva

The spicy and saucy humour with subtle sarcastic remarks made by some of the characters in the story take the audience by storm. Mehtab, Ullhas, Wasti, Nirmala and A. Shah are in the cast. Mr. Naushad's music is charming.

SAVARKAR AND AZAD PUNJAB

Reply To Letter Of Invitation For Conference

AMRITSAR, Feb. 25.

Mr. V. D. Savarkar, President of the All-India Hindu Mahasabha has expressed his inability to attend the Akali Azad Punjab Conference to be held here on March 28 under the presidentship of Master Tara Singh.

In a letter to Sardar Dalip Singh Doabia, General Secretary of the Conference, Mr. Savarkar says:—

"If my Sikh brothers stick faithfully to the integrity of the Indian State and Nation and do not harbour the fratricidal thought of cutting themselves off from the Central Government and setting up any part of Punjab as an entirely separate state, then, I for one would not find much to grumble about the scheme of provincial distributions. I have discussed this question exhaustively with Master Tara Singh on more than one occasion and I am confident that under his able lead nothing will be done to harm or weaken the ancestral, racial and national cohesion which make the Sikhs and Sikketar Hindus indissolubly bound together in soul, in flesh and bone and blood—an organic national entity."—A. "DO ALL YOU CAN TO ESCAPE HIM, HURT HIM, MISLEAD HIM"

LONDON, Feb. 25.

The Fighting French leader, General De Gaulle in a broadcast on Thursday night to the youth of France said:

It is now the moment to do everything possible to harm the invader until such time as he may be destroyed. It is especially on you that falls this great and hard duty of war.

It is at you that the enemy aims first—he who at this very moment wants to mobilise you to work for him.

Do all you can to escape him, or, if that is possible, to fool him, hurt him, mislead him.

Group yourselves with discipline in organisations of resistance which represent the fighting France of interior".—Reuter.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

NAGPUR, Feb. 25.

It is understood that if Gandhiji is released Hindu Mahasabha will start an intensive campaign that Congress as a national organisation must liquidate itself as virtually it has ceased to represent both Hindus and Muslims and that Mr. Savarkar will lead this movement.

A strong section of Hindu Sabhaites oppose this move which is based on the assumption that Congress and Congress leadership create a false sense of values and has ceased to be a political organisation.—Orient Press.

Does History Repeat Itself or Precede?

THE ETERNAL CONFLICT—Between Good and Evil that raged at Hastinapur, the ancient Delhi for the Throne at the cost of the Crown!

MAHATMA VIDUR HAD TO FACE the Eternal conflict between Good and Evil as symbolised by the Pandavas, the Good and the Kauravas the then Bureaucrats of the Mahabharat Age! MAHATMA VIDUR who was Good Incarnation could not but side with the good and, as such, with the Pandavas and assuming the role of their Ambassador at the Court of the Kauravas pleaded for the Restoration of the rightful throne to the Pandavas!

The Kauravas, being as they were typical Bureaucrats of A1 degree, were adamant as ever and refused to hand over to the Pandavas what by right belonged to the latter.

WHAT HAPPENED THEN?

WHAT ACTION DID MAHATMA VIDUR TAKE THEREUPON?

A close study of the life of Mahatma Vidur is essential to know what action he took under the circumstances described above and the world will have the easy opportunity of knowing it in "Mahatma Vidur" ("ROYAL-JEWEL" NO. 18) when he will flash across the silver-screen and make history just with his debut.

And it will be at NO DISTANT date. The FIRST FLASH will of course be IN BOMBAY, India's Cosmopolitan Capital.

It is said that HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF. But can anyone say that nothing that does not repeat itself is not history?

Well, to say that History repeats Itself is true, quite true but truer it is that and "Mahatma Vidur" is shortly arriving to prove it for those who doubt it.

HISTORY PRECEDES HISTORY

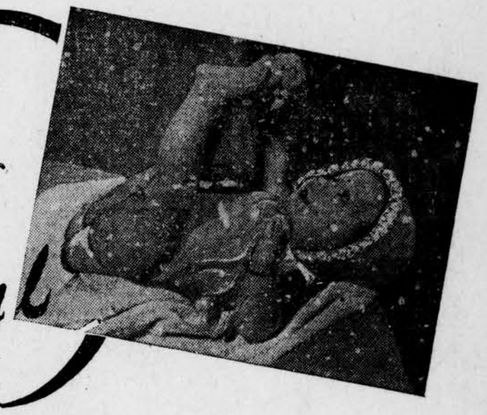
WATCH FOR HIS RELEASE!

Childish pranks are delightful



It is not by chance that many a child is moodish or listless.....it indicates some childish disorder like acidity, gripe or pain.

His bowels.....like himself..... quickly respond to a little loving care. Give him 'Elphin Brand Gripe Mixture' and presently they begin to show the results of Smooth lubrication.

Does not contain opium or other Narcotics.
